

MENU ☺

As a matter of principle, we do not sell sweatshop coffee here.

We mainly serve naturally processed and, whenever possible, directly traded beans. This means we are in direct contact with the producers, ensuring the coffee is grown sustainably and the farmers are paid fairly. Our milk comes from the regional family business Hiegesberger. As alternatives, we offer organic oat drink from Minor Figures and pea drink from Sproud—both of which are also available for purchase to take home.

Milk of your choice: cow's milk (G), oat drink (A), or pea drink. Allergen information depends on your selection.

●
Belgrade, 1979: When „Zlatni Papagaj”—meaning „Golden Parrot”—opened its doors as the city’s first all’italiana coffee bar, a new chapter of Italian coffee culture began in Yugoslavia. Almost four decades later, this iconic café is brought back to life in Vienna as a family-run business. We are carrying Belgrade’s symbol of lightness, joy, and high-quality products into the next generation while taking its concept a step further.
